A Director may also be asked to participate in or lead a task force. Directors are also expected to annually sign a confirmation that they have read and will comply with the following ECAR Directors Code of Conduct:
 - To act in the best interests of, and fulfill their obligations to, the organization and its constituents/members;
 - To act honestly, fairly, ethically, and with integrity;
 - To conduct themselves in a professional, courteous, and respectful manner;
 - To comply with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations;
 - To act in good faith, responsibly, with due care, competence and diligence, without allowing their independent judgment to be subordinated;
 - To act in a manner to enhance and maintain the reputation of the organization;

- To disclose potential conflicts of interest that they may have regarding any matters that may come before the Board, and to abstain from discussion and voting on any manner in which the director has or may have a conflict of interest;
 - To make available to and share with directors any information that may be appropriate to ensure proper conduct and sound operation of the organization's governance and management;
 - To respect the confidentiality of information relating to the affairs of the organization acquired in the course of service, except when authorized or legally required to disclose such information;
 - To not use information acquired in the course of service for personal advantage;
 - To not violate any federal, state, or local laws governing the organization and to understand and adhere with all governing documents applicable to the organization.
