Article III

Section 1. The territorial jurisdiction of the Association as a Member of NAR® is: All of Okaloosa and Walton Counties, Florida, unless otherwise modified for the reasons allowed by NAR® and after compliance with NAR® procedures. In such event, the territorial jurisdiction shall likewise be automatically amended and incorporated herein.

Section 2. Territorial jurisdiction is defined to mean: The right and duty to control the use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®, subject to the conditions set forth in these Bylaws and those of the NAR®.

Article IV Membership

Section 1. There shall be three (3) classes of members, as follows.

(a) REALTOR® Members. REALTOR® Members, whether primary or secondary shall be:

- i. Individuals who, as sole proprietors, partners, corporate officers, or branch office managers, are engaged actively in the real estate profession, including buying, selling, exchanging, renting or leasing, managing, appraising for others for compensation, counseling, building, developing or subdividing real estate, and who maintain or are associated with an established real estate office in the state of Florida or a state contiguous thereto. All persons who are partners in a partnership, or all officers in a corporation who are actively engaged in the real estate profession within the state or a state contiguous thereto shall qualify for REALTOR® membership only, and each is required to hold REALTOR® membership (except as provided in the following paragraph) in an association of REALTORS® within the state or a state contiguous thereto, unless otherwise qualified for Institute Affiliate membership.

In the case of a real estate firm, partnership, or corporation, whose business activity is substantially all commercial, only those principals actively engaged in the real estate business in connection with the same office, or any other offices within the jurisdiction of the Association in which one of the firm's principals holds REALTOR® membership, shall be required to hold REALTOR® membership unless otherwise qualified for Institute Affiliate membership.

- ii. Individuals who are engaged in the real estate profession other than as sole proprietors, partners, corporate officers, or branch office managers and are associated with a REALTOR® member and meet the qualifications.
- iii. Franchise REALTOR® Membership. Corporate officers (who may be licensed or unlicensed) of a real estate brokerage franchise organization with at least one hundred fifty (150) franchisees located within the United States, its insular possessions and the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, elected to membership pursuant to the provisions in the NAR® Constitution & Bylaws. Such individuals shall enjoy all of the rights, privileges, and obligations of REALTOR® membership (including compliance with the Code of Ethics) except: obligations related to Association-mandated education, meeting attendance, or indoctrination classes or other similar requirements; the right to use the term REALTOR® in connection with their franchise organization's name; and the right to hold elective office in the local association, state association, and National Association.

- iv. Primary and Secondary REALTOR® Members. An individual is a primary member if the Association pays state and National dues based on such member. An individual is a secondary member if state and National dues are remitted through another association. One of the principals in a real estate firm must be a designated REALTOR® member of the Association in order for licensees affiliated with the firm to select the Association as their "primary" association.
- v. Designated REALTOR® Members. Each firm (or office in the case of firms with multiple office locations) shall designate in writing one REALTOR® member who shall be responsible for all duties and obligations of membership, including the obligation to arbitrate (or to mediate if required by the Association) pursuant to Article 17 of the Code of Ethics and the payment of Association dues as established in Article X of the Bylaws. The "Designated REALTOR®" must be a sole proprietor, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager acting on behalf of the firm's principal(s) and must meet all other qualifications for REALTOR® membership established in Article V, Section 2 of the Bylaws.

- (b) Institute Affiliate Members. Institute Affiliate members shall be individuals who hold a professional designation awarded by an Institute, Society, or Council affiliated with NAR® that addresses a specialty area other than residential brokerage or individuals who otherwise hold a class of membership in such Institute, Society, or Council that confers the right to hold office. Any such individual, if otherwise eligible, may elect to hold REALTOR® or REALTOR-ASSOCIATE® membership, subject to payment of applicable dues for such membership.
- (c) Affiliate Members. Affiliate members shall be individuals, partnerships, corporations, or associations who are engaged in a business other than the sale or lease of real estate which does not require a real estate license, but who have interests that benefit from the services of the Association and who are in agreement with the objectives of the Association. Membership conveys to the business entity, not an individual member of the business.
- (d) All other classes of membership shall be approved at the discretion of the Board Of Directors, hereafter referred to as BOD.

Article V

Qualification and Election

Section 1. Application. An application for membership shall be made in such manner and form as may be prescribed by the BOD and shall be reviewed and evaluated in a uniform and non-discriminatory manner made available to anyone requesting it. The application form shall contain among the statements to be signed by the applicant the following in addition to any others prescribed by the BOD or recommended or required by the NAR®:

- (a) That applicant agrees as a condition to membership to thoroughly familiarize himself/herself and if elected a member shall abide by the NAR® Code of Ethics, its Constitution and Bylaws, and Policies and Procedures, and the governing documents of the Association, the State and National Associations. If the member is a REALTOR® member, he/she will abide by the NAR® Code of Ethics, including the obligation to arbitrate (or to mediate if required by the Association) controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics, and as further specified in the NAR® Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, and
- (b) That applicant consents that the Association, through its membership committee or otherwise, may invite and receive information and comment about applicant from any member or other persons, and that applicant agrees that any information and comment furnished to the Association by any person in response to the invitation shall be conclusively deemed to be privileged and not form the basis of any action for slander, libel, or defamation of character. The applicant shall, with the form of application, have access to a copy of the Constitution and Bylaws, Policies and Procedures and Code of Ethics referred to above.

Section 2. Qualification.

- (a) An applicant for REALTOR® membership who is a sole proprietor, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager of a real estate firm shall supply evidence satisfactory to the Association, through its membership committee or otherwise, that he/she is actively engaged in the real estate profession, and maintains a current, valid real estate broker's or salesperson's license or is licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property, has a place of business within the state or a state contiguous thereto (unless a secondary member), has no record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct, agrees to complete a course of instruction covering the Bylaws and Policies and Procedures of the Association, the Bylaws of the State Association, the Constitution and Bylaws and NAR® Code of Ethics, and shall pass such reasonable and nondiscriminatory written examination thereon, as may be required and shall agree that if elected to membership, he/she will abide by the governing documents described herein for the Association, State Association and National Association.

As provided above the phrase “no record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct” is intended to mean that the Association may only consider:

- Civil record judgments imposed against the applicant within the past seven (7) years involving judgments of
 - civil rights laws
 - real estate license laws, or

- other laws prohibiting unprofessional conduct against the applicant rendered by the courts or other lawful authorities; or
 - Criminal conviction record within the past seven (7) years involving a crime that reasonably relates to the real estate business, or a crime that puts clients, customers, or other real estate professionals at risk. In such event, the applicant must provide and the Association must consider mitigating factors relating to that criminal history. Such mitigating factors may include, but are not limited to, 1) applicant's age at the time of conviction, 2) nature and seriousness of the crime, 3) extent and past criminal history, 4) rehabilitative efforts take by applicant, and 5) evidence of current fitness to practice real estate.
- (b) Individuals who are actively engaged in the real estate profession other than as sole proprietors, partners, corporate officers, or branch office managers, in order to qualify for REALTOR® membership, shall at the time of application be associated either as an employee or as an independent contractor with a designated REALTOR® member of the Association or a designated REALTOR® member of another association (if a secondary member) and must maintain a current, valid real estate broker's or salesperson's license or be licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property, has no record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct, shall complete a course of instruction (Orientation Course) covering the Bylaws and Policies and Procedures of the Association, the Bylaws of the State Association, and the Constitution & Bylaws and NAR® Code of Ethics, and shall pass such reasonable and nondiscriminatory written examinations thereon as may be required by the membership committee, and shall agree in writing that if elected to membership he/she will continuously abide by such Constitution, Bylaws, Policies and Procedures and the Code of Ethics.
- (c) The Association will also consider the following in determining an applicant's qualifications for REALTOR® membership:
- All final findings of Code of Ethics violations and violations of other membership duties in this or any other REALTOR® association within the past three (3) years
 - Pending ethics complaints (or hearings)
 - Pending unsatisfied discipline
 - Pending arbitration requests (or hearings)
 - Unpaid arbitration awards or unpaid financial obligations to this or any other REALTOR® association or REALTOR® association MLS
 - Any misuse of the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® in the name of the applicant's firm

"Provisional" membership may be granted in instances where ethics complaints or arbitration requests (or hearings) are pending in other associations or where the applicant for membership has pending unsatisfied discipline in another association (except for violations of the Code of Ethics); provided all other qualifications for membership have been satisfied. Associations may reconsider the membership status of such individuals when all pending ethics and arbitration matters (and related discipline) have been resolved or if such matters are not resolved within six (6) months from the date that provisional membership is approved. Provisional members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of REALTOR® membership. If a member resigns from another association with an ethics complaint or arbitration request pending, the Association may condition membership on the applicant's written certification that he/she will submit to the pending ethics or arbitration proceeding (in accordance with the established procedures of the Association to which the applicant has made application) and will abide by the decision of the hearing panel after board ratification of such decision.

Section 3. Election.

The procedure for election to membership shall be as follows:

- (a) The Association Executive, hereafter referred to as AE, or a duly authorized designee shall determine whether the applicant is applying for the appropriate class of membership. If the Association has adopted provisional membership, applicants for the REALTOR® membership may be granted provisional membership immediately upon submission of a completed application form and remittance of applicable Association dues and any application fee. Provisional members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of membership. Provisional membership is granted subject to final review of the application by the BOD.
- (b) If the BOD determines that the individual does not meet all of the qualifications for membership as established in the Association's Bylaws, or if the individual does not satisfy all of the requirements of membership (for example, completion of the mandatory orientation program within in ninety (90) days from the Association's receipt of their application, membership may, at the discretion of the BOD, be terminated. The BOD shall vote, on the applicant's eligibility for membership. If the applicant receives a majority of the vote of the BOD, he/she shall be declared elected to membership and shall be advised by written notice.
- (c) The BOD may not reject an application without providing the applicant with advance notice of the findings, an opportunity to appear before the BOD, to call witness on his/her behalf, to be represented by counsel, and to make such statements as he/she deems relevant. The BOD may also have counsel present. The BOD shall require that written minutes be made of any hearing before it or may electronically or mechanically record the proceedings, but such hearing shall not be a general open BOD meeting.
- (d) If the BOD determines that the application should be rejected, it shall record its reasons with the AE, or duly authorized designee. If the BOD believes that denial of membership to the applicant may become the basis of litigation and a claim of damage by the applicant, it may specify that denial shall become effective upon entry in a suit by the Association for a declaratory judgement by a court of competent jurisdiction of a final judgement declaring that the rejection violates no rights of the applicant.

Section 4. New Member Code of Ethics Orientation.

Applicants for REALTOR® membership and provisional REALTOR® members shall complete an orientation program as stipulated by the NAR®, which shall include a class on the Code of Ethics of not less than two (2) hours and thirty (30) minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership or provisional members who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one (1) year or less.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within ninety (90) days of the date of application (or, the date that provisional membership was granted), will result in denial of the membership application or termination of provisional membership.

Section 5. REALTOR® Code of Ethics Training.

Each REALTOR® member of the Association (with the exception of REALTOR® members granted REALTOR® Emeritus status by NAR®) shall be required to complete ethics training for a stated cycle as required by NAR®. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another association, Florida REALTORS®, or NAR®, or any other recognized educational institution or provider which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by NAR®. REALTOR® members who have completed this cycle of training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the Code of Ethics training as part of the member orientation program shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until the new cycle commences.

Failure to satisfy the required periodic ethics training shall be considered a violation of membership. Failure to meet the requirement will result in suspension of membership until the requirement is met. On March 1 of that year, any member who is still suspended will be automatically terminated.

Section 6. Status Changes

- (a) A REALTOR® who changes the conditions under which he/she holds membership shall be required to provide written notification to the Association within thirty (30) days.

A REALTOR® (non-principal) who becomes a principal in the firm with which he/she has been licensed or, alternatively, becomes a principal in a new firm which will be comprised of REALTOR® principals may be required to satisfy any previously unsatisfied membership requirements applicable to REALTOR® (principal) members but shall, during the period of transition from one status of membership to another, be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of a REALTOR® (principal). If the REALTOR® (non-principal) does not satisfy the requirements established in these Bylaws for the category of membership to which they have transferred within thirty (30) days of the date the Association was notified in writing of their change in status, their new membership application will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the BOD.

- (b) A REALTOR® who is transferring his/her license from one firm comprised of REALTOR® principals to another firm comprised of REALTOR® principals shall be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of membership during the period of transition. If the transfer is not completed within thirty (30) days of the date the Association is advised of the disaffiliation with the current firm, membership will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the BOD.
- (c) Any application fee related to a change in membership status shall be reduced by an amount equal to any application fee previously paid by the applicant.

Article VI

Privileges and Obligations

Section 1. The privileges and obligations of members, in addition to those otherwise provided in these Bylaws, shall be specified in this Article.

Section 2. Any member of the Association may be reprimanded, disciplined, fined, placed on probation, suspended, or expelled by the BOD or NAR® for a violation of the Bylaws and the Association's Policies and Procedures consistent with the Bylaws, after a hearing as provided in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the Association. Although members other than REALTORS® are not subject to the Code of Ethics, nor its enforcement by the Association, such members are encouraged to abide by the principles established in the Code of Ethics of the NAR® and conduct their business and professional practices accordingly. Further, members other than REALTORS® may, upon recommendation by a hearing panel of the professional standards committee, be subject to discipline as described above, for any conduct, which in the opinion of the BOD, applied on a nondiscriminatory basis, reflects adversely on the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS®, and the real estate industry, or for conduct that is inconsistent with or adverse to the objectives and purposes of the local association, the State Association, and the NAR®.

Section 3. Any REALTOR® member of the Association may be reprimanded, disciplined, fined, placed on probation, suspended or expelled by the BOD for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership, after a hearing as described in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the Association, provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with the discipline authorized by the Professional Standards Committee of NAR® as set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

Section 4. A member’s resignation shall become effective when received in writing by the BOD, provided however, that if any member submitting the resignation is indebted to the Association for dues, fees, fines, or other assessments of the Association or any of its services, departments, divisions, or subsidiaries, the Association may condition the right of the resigning member to reapply for membership upon payment in full of all such monies owed.

Section 5.

- (a) If a member resigns from the Association or otherwise causes membership to terminate or lapse with an ethics complaint pending against the member as a named respondent, the complaint shall be processed until the decision of the Association with respect to disposition of the complaint is final by this Association (if respondent does not hold membership in any other association) or by any other association in which the respondent continues to hold membership, and the complainant shall be so notified. If an ethics respondent resigns or otherwise causes membership in all Boards to terminate before an ethics complaint is filed alleging unethical conduct occurred while the respondent was a REALTOR®, the complaint, once filed, shall be processed until the decision of the Association with respect to disposition of the complaint is final. In any instance where an ethics hearing is held subsequent to an ethics respondent’s resignation or membership termination, any discipline ratified by the BOD shall be held in abeyance until such time as the respondent rejoins an association of REALTORS®. If a complainant does not proceed with a filed ethics complaint, whether due to termination or resignation of membership, the procedures set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual shall govern the process as to whether the complaint will be processed for disposition of the complaint.
- (b) If a member resigns or otherwise causes membership to terminate, the duty to submit to arbitration (or to mediation if required by the Association) continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated, provided that the dispute arose while the former member was a REALTOR®.

Section 6. REALTOR® Members. REALTOR® members, whether primary or secondary, in good standing are entitled to vote and to hold elective office in the Association; may use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®. For purposes of this section, the term “good standing” means the member satisfies the “Obligations of Realtor® members,” is current with all financial and disciplinary obligations to the Association and MLS, has completed any new member requirements, and complies with NAR®’s trademark rules.

(a) If a REALTOR® member is a sole proprietor in a firm, a partner in a partnership or an officer in a corporation, and is suspended, terminated or expelled, the firm, partnership or corporation shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension, or until readmission to REALTOR® membership, or unless connection with the firm, partnership or corporation is severed, or management control is relinquished, whichever may apply. The membership of all other principals, partners, or corporate officers shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined member, or until readmission of the disciplined member or unless connection of the disciplined member with the firm, partnership, or corporation is severed, or unless the REALTOR® who is suspended, terminated or expelled removes himself/herself from any form or degree of management control of the firm for the term of the suspension or until readmission to membership, whichever may apply. Removal of an individual from any form or degree of management control must be certified to the Association by the member who is being suspended, terminated or expelled and by the individual who is assuming management control and the signatures of such certification must be notarized. In the event the suspended, terminated or expelled member is so certified to have relinquished all form or degree of management control of the firm, the membership of other partners, corporate officers, or other individuals affiliated with the firm shall not be affected, and the firm, partnership or corporation may continue to use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension or until the former member is admitted to membership in the Association. The foregoing is not intended to preclude a suspended or expelled member from functioning as an employee or independent contractor, providing no management control is exercised. Further, the membership of REALTORS® other than principals who are employed or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined member shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined member or until readmission of the disciplined member, or unless connection of the disciplined member with the firm, partnership, or corporation is severed, or management control is relinquished, or unless the REALTOR® member (non-principal) elects to sever his/her connection with the REALTOR® and affiliate with another REALTOR® member in good standing in the Association, whichever may apply.

If a REALTOR® member other than a sole proprietor in a firm, partner in a partnership, or an officer of a corporation is suspended or expelled, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® by the firm, partnership or corporation shall not be affected.

- (b) In any action taken against a REALTOR® member for suspension or expulsion under Section 6(a) hereof, notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® member and they shall be advised that the provisions in Article VI, Section 6(a) shall apply.
- (c) It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of this Association to safeguard and promote the standards, interests and welfare of the Association and the real estate profession, and to protect against conduct that may cause a lack of public confidence in the real estate profession or in REALTORS®. REALTOR® members also must abide by the governing documents and policies of the Association, the State Association, and the NAR® as well as the Code of Ethics of the NAR® including the duty to mediate and arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics, and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

- (d) Every REALTOR® member shall maintain a high level of integrity and adhere to the Association's membership criteria. Any violent act or threat of violence to person or property, hateful conduct, or acts of moral turpitude impacting the public shall not be tolerated and may be cause for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of membership.

Section 7. Institute Affiliate Members. Institute Affiliate members shall have rights and privileges and be subject to obligations prescribed by the BOD consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of NAR®.

Section 8. Affiliate Members. Affiliate members shall have rights and privileges and be subject to obligations prescribed by the BOD.

Section 9. "Designated" REALTOR. "Designated" REALTOR® members shall also notify the Association of any additional individual(s) licensed or certified with the firm(s) within thirty (30) days of the date of affiliation or severance of the individual.

Section 10. Florida REALTORS® President and Florida REALTORS® President-elect. The President and President-elect of the Florida REALTORS®, for their respective terms in office, are members in good standing of the Association and as such are qualified to serve as the official voting delegate or alternate at NAR® for the Association. Further, all local association dues are waived for such president and president-elect during their respective terms of office.

Section 11. Harassment. Any member of the Association may be reprimanded, placed on probation, suspended or expelled for harassment of an Association or MLS employee or an Association officer, director, committee chair, or any other member conducting business or volunteering on behalf of the Association after an investigation in accordance with the Policies and Procedures of the Association. As used in this section, harassment means any verbal or physical conduct including threatening or obscene language, unwelcome sexual advances, stalking, actions including strikes, shoves, kicks, or other similar physical contact, or threats to do the same, or any other conduct with the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating a hostile, intimidating or offensive work environment. The decision of the appropriate disciplinary action to be taken shall be made by an investigatory team comprised of the President, President-elect, and one member of the BOD selected by the highest-ranking officer not named in the complaint. Upon consultation with legal counsel for the Association, disciplinary action may include any sanction authorized within NAR®'s Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. If the complaint names the President, or President-elect, they may not participate in the proceedings and shall be replaced by another member of the BOD selected by the highest-ranking officer not named in the complaint.

Article VII

Professional Standards and Arbitration

Section 1. The responsibility of the Association and of Association members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, and the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto, shall be governed by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the NAR, which is by this reference incorporated into these Bylaws, provided, however, that any provision deemed inconsistent with state law shall be deleted or amended to comply with state law.

Section 2. It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of this Association to abide by the governing documents and Bylaws and the Policies and Procedures of the Association, the Constitution and Bylaws of the State Association, the Constitution and Bylaws of the NAR®, and to abide by the Code of Ethics of NAR® including the duty to mediate and arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics, and as further defined and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of this Association.

Section 3. The responsibility of the Association and Association members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, disciplining of members, arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto, shall be consistent with the cooperative professional standards enforcement agreement entered into by the Association, which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

Article VIII

Use of the Terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®

Inclusion and retention of the Registered Collective Membership Mark REALTORS® in the name of the Association shall be governed by the Constitution and Bylaws of NAR®.

Section 1. Use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® by members shall, at all times, be subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of NAR® and to the Policies and Procedures prescribed by its BOD. The Association shall have the authority to control, jointly and in full cooperation with NAR®, use of the terms within its jurisdiction. Any misuse of the terms by members is a violation of a membership duty and may subject members to disciplinary action by the BOD after a hearing as provided for in the Association’s Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

Section 2. REALTOR® members of the Association shall have the privilege of using the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with their places of business within the state or a state contiguous thereto so long as they remain REALTOR® members in good standing. No other class of members shall have this privilege.

Section 3. A REALTOR® principal member may use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®, only if all the principals of such firm, partnership, or corporation who are actively engaged in the real estate profession within the state or a state contiguous thereto are REALTOR® members or Institute Affiliate members.

In the case of a REALTOR® principal member whose business activity is substantially all commercial, the right to use the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® shall be limited to office locations in which a principal holds REALTOR® membership. If a firm, partnership, or corporation operates additional places of business in which no principal holds REALTOR® membership, the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® may not be used in any reference to those additional places of business.

Section 4. Institute Affiliate members shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS®, nor the imprint of the emblem seal of NAR®.

Article IX

State and National Memberships

Section 1. The Association shall be a member of NAR® and Florida REALTORS®. By reason of the Association’s membership, each REALTOR® member of the Association shall be entitled to membership in NAR® and Florida REALTORS® without further payment of dues. The Association shall continue as a member of the State and National Associations, unless by a majority vote of all of its REALTOR® members, decision is made to withdraw, in which case the State and National Associations shall be notified at least one (1) month in advance of the date designated for the termination of such membership.

Section 2. The Association recognizes the exclusive property rights of the NAR® in the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®. The Association shall discontinue use of the terms in any form in its name, upon ceasing to be a member of the National Association, or upon a determination by the Board of Directors of the National Association that it has violated the conditions imposed upon the terms.

Section 3. The Association adopts the Code of Ethics of the NAR® and agrees to enforce the Code among its REALTOR® members. The Association and all of its members agree to abide by the Constitution, Bylaws and Policies and Procedures of the NAR® and Florida REALTORS®.

Article X

Dues and Assessments

Section 1. Application Fee. The BOD may adopt an application fee for REALTOR® membership in a reasonable amount, not exceeding three (3) times the amount of the annual dues for REALTOR® membership, which shall be required to accompany each application for REALTOR® membership and which shall become the property of the Association upon final approval of the application.

Section 2. Dues. The annual dues of members shall be as follows.

- (a) REALTOR® Members. The annual dues of each designated REALTOR® member shall be in such amount as established annually by the BOD, plus an additional amount to be established annually by the BOD times the number of real estate salespersons and licensed or certified appraisers who:
 - i. Are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors, or who are otherwise directly or indirectly licensed with such REALTOR® member, and

Article XV

Rules of Order and Force Majeure

Section 2. Emergency Powers and Force Majeure. In addition to the emergency powers provided under Florida law, if a rare or unusual event occurs (hurricanes, floods, extreme weather, earthquakes, fires, epidemics, pandemics, other acts of God) that preclude the BOD from following the procedures set forth in these Bylaws, the BOD is permitted to use only such reasonable means as required during the force majeure or emergency event to meet its fiduciary obligations and duties to the Association and membership.

Article XVI

These Bylaws may be amended by the majority vote of the members present and qualified to vote at a special meeting at which a quorum is present, provided the substance of such proposed amendment or amendments shall be plainly stated in the call for the meeting, except that the BOD may, at any regular or special meeting of the BOD at which a quorum is present, adopt amendments to the Bylaws which are mandated by NAR® policy.

Section 2. Notice of all meetings at which amendments to the Bylaws are to be considered shall be distributed to every member eligible to vote at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the meeting.

Article XVII Dissolution

Section 1. Upon the dissolution of this Association, the BOD, after providing for the payment of all obligations, shall distribute any remaining assets to Florida REALTORS® or, within its discretion, to any other non-profit tax-exempt organization.

Article XVIII – Multiple Listing Service

Section 1. Authority. The Association shall maintain for the use of its members a Multiple Listing Service (MLS) which shall be subject to the Bylaws of the Association and such Policies and Procedures as may be hereafter adopted.

Section 2. Purpose. A multiple listing service is a means by which authorized participants make blanket unilateral offers of compensation to other participants (acting in any agency or non-agency capacities defined by law); by which cooperation among participants is enhanced; by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized participants to prepare appraisals, analyses, and other valuations of real property for bona fide clients and customers; by which participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common databases; and is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so participants may better serve their clients and the public. Entitlement to compensation is determined by the cooperating broker's performance as a procuring cause of the sale (or lease).

Section 3. Governing Documents. The BOD shall cause any multiple listing service established by it pursuant to this article to conform its Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, rules, regulations, and the policies, practices, and procedures of the NAR® Constitution, Bylaws, rules, regulations, and policies.

Section 4. Supervision. The activity shall be operated under the supervision of the multiple listing service committee, in accordance with the MLS rules and regulations, and the MLS Service Policy Statements and all mandatory NAR® MLS provisions subject to approval of the BOD of the Association.

Section 5. Participation. Any REALTOR® of this or any other Association who is a principal (sole proprietor, partner, corporate officer), or branch office manager acting on behalf of a principal, without further qualification, shall be eligible to participate in the multiple listing service upon agreeing in writing to conform to the rules and regulations thereof and to pay the costs incidental thereto. A non-member applicant for the Multiple Listing Service participation who is a principal (sole proprietor, partner, or corporate officer) or branch office manager acting on behalf of the principal agrees to complete a course of instruction covering MLS Rules and Regulations and Service Policy Statements, and shall agree that if elected as a participant, will abide by such rules and regulations and Service Policy Statements and pay the MLS fees and dues, including a non-member differential, as from time to time established. Under no circumstances is any individual or firm entitled to multiple listing service membership or participation unless they hold a current, valid real estate broker's license and offer or accept compensation to and from other participants or are licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property. Use of information developed by or published by a multiple listing service is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a participant's licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are prohibited. Further, none of the foregoing is intended to convey "participation" or "membership" or any right of access to information developed by or published by an association multiple listing service where access to such information is prohibited by law.

Mere possession of a broker's license is not sufficient to qualify for MLS participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or firm offers or accepts cooperation and compensation means that the participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list real property of the type listed on the MLS and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers or agents in the MLS. "Actively" means on a continual and ongoing basis during the operation of the participant's real estate business. The "actively" requirement is not intended to preclude MLS participation by a participant or potential participant that operates a real estate business on a part-time, seasonal, or similarly time-limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny MLS participation to a participant or potential participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit an MLS to deny participation based on the level of service provided by the participant or potential participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law.

The key is that the participant or potential participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the MLS in which participation is sought. This requirement does not permit an MLS to deny participation to a participant or potential participant that operates a “Virtual Office Website” (VOW) (including a VOW that the participant uses to refer customers to other participants) if the participant or potential participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. An MLS may evaluate whether a participant or potential participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to offer or accept cooperation and compensation only if the MLS has a reasonable basis to believe that the participant or potential participant is in fact not doing so. The membership requirement shall be applied in a nondiscriminatory uniform manner to all participants and potential participants consistent with NAR® policy.

Section 6. Participants and Subscribers.

- (a) Participants: Participants of the MLS include those eligible to participate in the MLS as described in Section 5.
- (b) Subscribers: Subscribers (or users) of the MLS include non-principal broker associates, sales associates, licensed assistants, and registered, licensed, and certified appraisers affiliated with Participants.
- (c) Scope of Participation:
 - i. Any non-principal broker associate, sales associate, licensed assistant, or registered, licensed, or certified appraiser affiliated with a participant without exception, is considered a subscriber for the purposes of determining monthly MLS fees, regardless of the availability to and use of MLS services by the individual’s employment status, function, or purpose for affiliation with that participant.
 - ii. The MLS is provided exclusively for participants and subscribers as described above. However, a person who cannot otherwise be defined as a participant or subscriber, but is contracted, employed, or engaged by a participant or subscriber may, at the discretion of the AE as directed by the BOD of the Association, be granted access to the MLS for the sole purpose of assisting that participant or subscriber in his or her real estate related activities. Terms, fees, and limits of such access shall be maintained through policy set by the BOD. The participant is responsible for actions taken by the assistant on behalf of the participant or the participant’s subscriber. The Association reserves the right to revoke such access without notice and assess MLS fees for services rendered if it is determined that an assistant either at the time of application or at a later date falls under the definition of participant or subscriber

Section 7. MLS Services. MLS services shall be defined as follows:

- (a) Core Services: Core Services shall be those services available to all MLS participants and subscribers, and include the following functionality:

- a. The ability to add and maintain a listing within the MLS.
 - b. The ability to search for property actively available for sale within the MLS by defining criteria using basic property attributes.
 - c. The ability to view a text description of property actively available for sale within the MLS.
- (b) Enhanced Services. Enhanced services shall be those services offered in addition to Core Services as may be made available by the Association to REALTOR® Members.
